Wicked Visalia.

VISALIA, September 21.—The evidence in the case of W. J. White, charged with the murder of Dr. A. B. Mehring, was filed with Judge Clark this morning, after it had been signed by the witnesses. Judge Clark announced that he would bind White over to appear before the next grand jury on the charge of manslaughter, and fixed his bail at $5000. The bonds were immediately signed and White was released from custody. General satisfaction is expressed with the ruling of the Court.

A shooting affray took place here yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The parties involved were H. H. Miles and Ananias Niles, the encounter occurring near the residence of T. W. Harper, about six miles west of Porterville. Some days since the men engaged in a quarrel, Niles being severely punished with a horsewhip by Miles. Yesterday as Miles, in company with W. P. Duncan, was riding on the way to Porterville, he was met by Niles, who immediately raised a shotgun and fired at Miles, though missing him. Miles, being in the wagon when the shot was fired, fell into the body of the wagon and rose with a Henry rifle in his hands. Miles aimed and fired just as Niles turned, the bullet striking him in the small of the back and perforating his body. Miles, upon reaching Porterville, surrendered himself to the authorities, first sending a physician to look after Niles, who was found still alive, but, it is believed, mortally wounded.

The Michigan Blizzard.

DETROIT, Mich. Sept. 21.—Particulars of the damage done by the cyclone which passed over the northern part of this State on Thursday are coming in slowly. A Free Press special Saginaw says: A quantity of shingles on Whittemore & Cameron's dock at Tawas, and about fifty thousand feet of lumber on the Tawas Mill company's dock were blown into the lake. Fifteen hundred trees fell across the track of the Tawas and South-western railroad, and considerable damage was done to buildings and property along the line. At Ogemaw springs the wind blew down tramways and smokestacks and unroofed a portion of the Ogemaw mill.

More Body-Snatching in Ohio.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 21.—The excitement over recent body-snatching was increased to-day by the discovery in a vat of the Homeopathic college of the remains of Mrs. A. Higby, of Garrettsville, Ohio, an old and esteemed resident of that place, who died August 23d. The Homeopathic college officials hearing of the intended search of the body, had the remains taken to an undertaker's and properly dressed and confined, where it was delivered over to friends. The chief members of the faculty were arrested, but released on bail. The college janitor and two other men are the supposed prime movers in this business.

A Village Swept Away.

EAST SAGINAW, Mich., Sept. 21.—Sherman City, a small village in Isabella county, Mich., was annihilated Thursday by a terrific tornado. Every store, dwelling house and shed in the village was swept clean, except one frame dwelling, which was partially destroyed. The air was thick with timbers, boards, brick and stone. The inhabitants took refuge in cellars. Mr. Tryo, his wife, little girl and baby were badly injured. At Coleman, Mich., considerable damage was done.

A Texas Execution.

WACO, Texas, Sept. 20.—John Spires, for the murder of parson Blodger in McClellan county in 1875, was executed to-day in the Waco county jail yard. Only county officers, members of the press, physicians and a limited number of citizens were admitted. He left a written statement to the Waco Telephone, in which he made himself a participant in crimes with his brother-in-law, father-in-law, and a cousin of his brother-in-law.

Kearney's Washington Disciple.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—Cohn, with his men, this afternoon visited the brick yards in the southeastern portion of the city, and addressed those engaged there. He advised them to join his strikers, but met with no success. This evening he held a meeting at the city hall. The speeches by him and others were of a mild character. The attendance was slim, only about 150 strikers being present.

New York Tribune: Mr. Tilden's touch may be clammy and unsympathetic; but then he can shuffle and skate along until he charges himself with enough electricity to give Tammany a bouncing shock whenever he takes hold of the wires, and never once catch his pedometer on the centre or throw it out of gear.

As curious a liquidation of an old bill as any is that of the young man of Shelbyville, Indiana, who has hauled wood to pay Dr. Robins for attending his mother, when he was born, twenty three years ago.

Chinatown Hypp.

[Stock Exchange.]

All Chinatown was in a ferment of excitement yesterday, caused by the arrival of some sixty Celestial females from the old sod of China. The old Chinese and the young Chinese were on hand to inspect the new arrivals and sample their smiles. The board of Police Commissioners carefully examined the females and found their passports all right. This being assured, the damsels were ferried over to the heart of the Chinese quarter in elegant express wagons drawn by native American horses and driven by Melian drivers. The new arrivals were feted last evening, Colonel Bee made another speech on the cue ordinance, and Chinatown was happy.

A Chinaman Chopped Up.

MARTSVILLE, September 19.—A Chinese vegetable peddler named Ah Gong was murdered last night in his bunk in the Chinese quarter. The remains were discovered about 9 A. M., in a terribly butchered condition, showing the implement used to have been a hatchet or other heavy sharp instrument. The bunk and clothing were bespattered with blood, but no tell-tale instrument was discovered. The Chinaman was barked with deceased was arrested on suspicion and lodged in the city prison.

Try It.

Take a counterfeit $5 bill; enter a store at dusk with a witness and ask the honest tradesman if he can give you silver for a $2 bill. The honest tradesman will slam the bill into the till and count out the silver. When he discovers that the note was counterfeit you have a witness to swear that you received just $2, hence the bad V can't have been given by you.

Boston Post: When Kearney addresses "40,000" sons of toil and collects from them three dollars and fifteen cents, his honest heart should swell with pride that none of his hearers give external evidence of being "lecherous" bondholders.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Don't Forget it.

If you are troubled with nervousness, are disheartened, tired of life, fear death or feel out of sorts, as the saying is, you may safely conclude that you have the Dyspepsia or Liver Complaint. The liver is very apt to become torpid at this season of the year, as poisons arising from marshes, stagnant water are more numerous, and are, through inhalation, taken into the blood. Unless the liver is strong and active, and furnishes a supply of fresh and pure blood to drive out the impurities, the above mentioned symptoms surely follow, and if not heeded, end in more terrible diseases and death. White's Prairie Flower proves itself the great liver panacea. Its action on the liver is different from any medicine ever compounded. Its cures are truly wonderful. Try it. Price, twenty-five cents and seventy-five cents. For sale by our druggists, OSBORN & SHOEMAKER, and cod

FEATHERY JOURNALISTS.

There are some of our neighbors journalist who are naturally song-birds and high-flyers. They have editorial wings, pin feathers and other appendages which raise them above the stubborn facts of this earth. If any scoundrel is punished and driven from the scene of his rascality these ethereal penitents wait until he has reached some distant town and then publish the account of his sufferings, with copious editorial tears and sighs. Among these discourteous ones we note the Virginia Enterprise and Sacramento Bee. A scoundrel named W. J. Jones was tarred and feathered recently in this town for a pleasant little habit of grossly insulting unprotected women. The citizens of this community, feeling that their wives and daughters were unsafe while such a man was at large, made the town unpleasant for him by the use of asphaltum and pul. He went away and recited his sufferings to a newspaper man who knew nothing of his offenses. The virtuous papers above alluded to dried the fellow's tears with their scissars by copying his lament and neglecting his offense, which appeared, with the proofs, in the local papers. There has been considerable comment here upon the course of the Enterprise in assuming that the citizens of Reno are a mob for the abuse of worthy liquor merchants. The editors in question were probably not thinking of journalistic courtesy, or of the poor innocent girl who was lured from her home in San Francisco for a purpose which makes every man shudder. Yet these two thoughts should have played at least a small part in their verdict upon the case.

FOR LEGISLATOR.

The GAZETTE mentioned, some days since the names of several citizens whom we thought would make efficient representatives for Washoe county in our State Legislature. And now comes a response from a Pennsylvania Exchange:

"We see by the Reno, Nevada, GAZETTE that Mr. R. P. Chapin is talked of as a candidate for the Legislature. He would make a good man for the position, but perhaps would not accept of it, as it would probably interfere with his business."

It was in the belief that Mr. Chapin was a good man for the position that the GAZETTE nominated him. He is, in addition, an enthusiastic Jones man, a thorough-going Republican, served both in the army and the navy during the war, and has large interests in Washoe county. We therefore see no reason for changing our opinion. This tribute from his Eastern home ought to be pleasant to Mr. Chapin, whether he runs or not. We suggest to him that this is not a time for considering business or personal reasons. Washoe expects every Republican to do his duty.

THAT DELEGATION.

There is considerable discussion upon the reason which induced the admission of the people's delegation from Storey county to the Republican State convention. Lest our Democratic contemporaries should make mistakes, we will here recite the real reason, as it was given before the Committee on Credentials. At a meeting of the State central committee to settle upon primaries some weeks since, the right of committees to appoint was discussed. The question was put in this form:

"Should a county central committee appoint and then the people elect, which delegation would be admitted?"

The committee without dissent agreed that the delegation from the people would in all cases be the preference. Hon. Wm. Thompson, of Washoe, then a member of the State committee, raised the point, and should be thanked for establishing there and in the State convention a good precedent.

The Silver State smiles because Republicans sustain the 8-to-7 decision by the Electoral Commission, and hurls against the party the overwhelming fact that in the convention at Eureka 8 to 7 admitted the people's delegation from Storey.

Monstrous allusion, hideous truth, uncompromising fact, stern reality. An entire campaign commenced for nothing. The unkind spirit shown by the Silver State reminds us of—but there, the State knows better or knows nothing. We will not crush the offender just yet.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Silver State has bought a diving bell and descends each day into the slough of despond looking for crumbs of comfort for the Democratic picket. The last find was as follows: "Governor Bradley was not responsible for Mollie Forsha's liberation. Two others voted with him, and without them he could have done nothing." You have drawn the right boot on the left foot, friend. Without the Governor, four of Board could not have liberated the troublesome Mollie. Read the constitution, friend, from a non-partisan standpoint.

Picotte, of the Lyon County Times, who is fast making for himself a record as a clear-headed and outspoken journalist, has this to say upon the nomination for Congress, Mr. Daggett: "Knowing him, as we do, to be honorable, independent and capable, there is no man in the Union to-day in whom we would have more confidence as an exponent of the people's interest, and it would be well for the State and for the county at large if more men of his stamp were sent to Washington."

A Virginia Correspondent of the Lyon County Times very sensibly says: "All praise to the Republican convention for admitting the delegates elected by the people of Storey county. It is a good lesson to both parties and particularly to county committees who frequently arrogate to themselves powers which can safely be trusted to the people."

Speaking of the Republican State ticket the Cherry Creek Independent says: "As a whole, it is quite satisfactory to the party in this section of the State. There seems to have been a shaking up of things, as a few of the nominations were somewhat unexpected. Daggett, for Congress, gives universal satisfaction."

The Nevada city Herald makes copious extracts from the GAZETTE's report of the Jones affair and in commenting upon the tarring and feathering says: "The people of Reno have set an example which it would be well for the people of some other localities to imitate."

UNEXPECTED BUT TIMELY.

[Reno Journal, Sunday.]

Charles S. Varian is the Republican candidate for Judge of the 2d Judicial District, composed of the counties of Washoe, Ormsby and Douglas. Mr. Varian is one of the very best lawyers in the district, and is warmly endorsed by the bar for the position of District Judge. We believe that he would make a good Judge, discharging the duties of the position with fidelity to the true interests of litigants, studying carefully the rights of all, being only actuated by a desire to make a record for himself as a Judge and a man which shall last for all time. This is more natural for the reason that he is a young man and has the world before him; hence his future is entirely of his own making. His mind is too evenly balanced to intentionally cause him to make any mistakes. There is no question of his competency; his standing as a lawyer in the district, and his position of U. S. District Attorney of Nevada is sufficient recommendation. His interests are all here in Washoe county, and his election as Judge will be a great convenience to the people and the bar of Washoe county. The complaint has often been made that on account of the Judge living in another county, the interests of Washoe have often been neglected. Now that we have a chance to remedy this evil, if it be one, there should be no further complaint, should we fail to do so. Not alone party, not alone pride of county, not alone personal, but every consideration demands that Washoe should do its best for C. S. Varian as District Judge.

Marriage.

The following is a translation from a German paper. The sentiment is good and may benefit youthful readers: "Marriages are usually contracted to gratify one of three desires, viz: love, fortune or position. The man who marries for love, takes a wife; who marries for fortune takes a mistress; who marries for position, takes a lady. He is loved by his wife; regarded by his mistress; tolerated by his lady. He has a wife for himself; a mistress for his household; a lady for the world and society. His wife will take care of his household; his mistress of his house; his lady of his appearances. If he is sick his wife will take care of him; his mistress will visit him; his lady will inquire after his health. He takes a walk with his wife; a ride with his mistress; goes to a party with his lady. His wife will share his grief; his mistress his money; his lady his debts. If he dies, his wife will weep; his mistress lament; and his lady wear mourning."

A Sinful Brakeman.

[Untruthful Exchange.]

A facetious brakeman on the Central Pacific railroad cried out as the train was about to enter a tunnel, "This is one mile long and the train will be four minutes passing through it." The train dashed through into daylight again in four seconds, and the scene within the car was a study for a painter. Seven young ladies were closely pressed by seven pair of masculine arms, fourteen pairs of lips were glued together and two dozen inverted whisky-flasks flashed in the air.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup!
—OF—
HYPOPHOSPHITES.
THIS DISCOVERY
Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy."
One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power. This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs which depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker suffering first. The inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, because the latter, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his.

Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites
and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from those maladies.
Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:
Chronic Constipation, Chronic Dyspepsia, Asthma, Chronic Bronchitis, Consumption, Chronic Diarrhea, Chronic Laryngitis, Melancholia, Nervous Debility.
Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other low fevers, Diphtheria, Acute and Chronic Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Singleness of the Liver, Interrupted and feeble Action of the Heart, SUPPRESSED FEELINGS caused by mucous obstruction of the Lungs and Air Passages, leading to Debility and Wasting from various causes, Indigestion and habitual Constipation almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effects of cathartics. Weakness of the Joints and Muscles, IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD, and INWARD WASTING may be cured by the regular use of the described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites
The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is hourly acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the large sale is the best guarantee of its estimation in which it is held by the public.
This syrup will cure PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life for years in the third, will cure ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, LARYNGITIS and COUGHS. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.

ASH & ROBBINS,
